THERE ARE MANY ENDOWED ROOMS IN THE NEW HOSPITAL

Individuals And Organizations Have Been Very Generous—New Laboratory Has A Baby Incubator—Original Donors Plaque Was Salvaged From Old Hospital Fire.

As one enters the beautiful rotunda of West Lincoln Memorial hospital he will perceive upon the east wall a large sized plaque carrying the names of the first original organizations and large donors to the hospital. This plaque was rescued from the fire that destroyed "The Hospital-on-the-Hill." Below this plaque is a new plaque containing the names of the Board of Directors, Medical Board and other officials of the new West Lincoln.

As one walks the broad corridors of the new hospital he will observe small name plates on the doors of most of the wards and other rooms. These wards and rooms were donated to the old and the new hospitals by the people indicated. The list of donors is as follows:

The new laboratory with all its complete equipment, including a baby incubator was a gift from the late Harold C. Woolverton.

The Formula room with all equipment was donated by John Leonard Eames.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE TO BE HELD SUNDAY

L.O.D.E. Will Present Scrolls Of All Who Served In Two Wars At Remembrance Day Services.

The annual Decoration Parade of West Lincoln branch, Canadian Legion and the Memorial Service of Lincoln Loyalist Chapter, I.O. D.E. will be held on Sunday afternoon.

The parade of Legion members and all other veterans of all wars will form up at the Legion Hall on Depot street and march to the Memorial Gates at the entrance to Queen's Law cemetery. The parade will be headed by Beamsville Citizens' Band.

At the Memorial Gates, wreaths from the two municipalities and various organizations will be laid at the base of the gates. The parade will then proceed into the cemetery where the usual decoration of graves ceremonies will be held at the Plot of Remembrance.

Upon the return of the parade to town, the Memorial Services will be held in the Romy Theatre commencing at four o'clock.

It is expected that this is the last year that the Legion will hold the Decoration Day ceremonies in November. A date in August is (Continued on Page 5)

OLD FOLKS AND ORPHANS WILL BE HAPPY HERE

In connection with his visit to Grimsby two weeks ago of the visit of the Archbishop of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church in Canada, to St. George's church, the transaction was closed last week whereby The Homestead, situated on No. 8 Highway near the Grimsby Beach corner was purchased by the Ukrainian Orthodox Church and will be converted into a Home for Aged Men and for Orphan Boys.

This is the first Monastery and Home for the Aged and Orphans in Canada operated by the Ukrainian Orthodox Church. It will be known by the name of St. Nicholas Ukrainian Monastery and Home for the Aged and Orphans.

In conversation with Rev. Mr. Fedak, pastor of St. George's church we learn that the church officials contemplate purchasing another property in this district that will be a Monastery and Home for the Aged Women and girl orphans, but he would not state just where.

The above fine home along with six acres of fine fruit land was purchased from Mr. C. A. Tuer at a price that runs well into the five figures, and no doubt is an ideal place for a home for the aged and orphans.

This property is the old original Hewitt

Homestead. It was in the original portion of this building that the late John Hewitt, Grimsby boy, who became a big industrialist and financial figure in Chicago and the manufacturer of the world famous Miehle printing press was born.

In 1907-08 the late Mr. Hewitt was laying plans to retire and he came back to his native soil and repurchased the old Hewitt Homestead and a lot of other property besides. The Village Inn is one of his expansions for Grimsby. He renovated and added an addition to the Old Home. Upon his demise in 1919 the property passed to the late Charles and Mrs. Wouters, Mrs. Wouters being a niece of Mr. Hewitt. These good people added another addition to the home.

Upon the death of Mr. Wouters the property passed into the hands of Mr. Tuer who also renovated it and added another addition, until to-day The Independent understands that the big home contains no less than 35 very fine, large rooms exclusive of bathrooms and kitchen which makes it an ideal home for the purpose for which it is going to be used.

Rev. Mr. Fedak informs The Independent that incorporated with the Home will be a museum for old church relics and pictures and it will always be open to tourists and the general public.

GRIMSBY'S POPULATION TAKES A SLIGHT TURN DOWNWARD

CAR OUT OF CONTROL PERFORMS ACROBATICS

Four Passengers Have An Exciting Ride And Escape With Only Slight Injuries.

Four residents of Grimsby Beach had a narrow escape from serious injury on Thursday morning, when a car operated by John Rawcliffe, an employee of the Growers' Cold Storage, went out of control, struck a parked truck, careened off striking a large boulder which flipped the vehicle, the car then coming to rest on its left side.

The accident happened on Main St. east about eight o'clock, as Rawcliffe was on his way to work. Three students of Grimsby High School he had picked up near the Beach, were also in the car.

Injured slightly was Terry Verrier, a passenger in the front of the 1938 Dodge car, while brother "Buster," and Leonard Christie escaped with a shaking up. Rawcliffe himself suffered minor cuts to the forehead. Extensive damage was done to the car, while the truck, owned by Jarvis Bakery, was damaged to the extent of $165.00.

The truck was parked in a driveway all night after it had run out of gas. It was completely turned around by the impact. Rawcliffe stated that the car went out of control due to a faulty tie rod. Constable Rathbone investigated.

Assessor's Roll Shows 30 Less Residents Than A Year Ago—Assessment Shows An Increase—Is Now $1,848,713—Population Is Given As 2,427.

For the first time since 1946 the population of the Town of Grimsby has dropped. The decline is very slight—just thirty, however, figures indicate that since 1946 the population has grown to an all time high of 2457 in 1948, dropping down to 2427 as based on the assessment roll recently completed for the year 1949.

The war years, that is, from 1939 to 1945, saw the population dwindle to below the 2000 mark, thus for the first time since 1921 when Grimsby received its town charter, the population dropped below the necessary 2000 required before a town may be chartered.

For the historic years just past the population figures appear on the town files as follows:

YEAR	POPULATION
1939	1851
1940	1888
1941	1965
1942	1992
1943	1968
1944	1993
1945	1990
1946	2107
1947	2333
1948	2414
1949	2427

OLD DOBBIN STAGES COMEBACK AT COUNTY PLOWING CONTESTS

More Plowmen Using Horses Than Tractors—Big Farm Equipment Display—Bruce Book, 10 Years Old, Three Times Winner Of Bank Trophy.

More than 500 enthusiastic spectators braved cool weather on Wednesday and turned out for the 25th annual Lincoln County Plowing Match, held at the Victor Book farm, three miles south of Beamsville. Agricultural Officer G. E. Nelson said the land was in good shape for the event.

Ten-year-old Bruce Book was one of the day's highlights. It was Bruce's third straight year in the plowing matches and for the third time he won "for keeps" the Imperial Bank Trophy awarded to any entrant 16 years and under for the best tractor plowed land. Bruce almost carried off the Mac Lockhart Trophy won by his 15-year-old brother, Douglas. The latter trophy was awarded to Douglas Book for the third consecutive year for the best plowed land by a boy under 20.

For the fourth time and third consecutive year Alfred Dickie of Jerseyville, copped the Grand trophy. This trophy is open to all contestants and is donated by the Lincoln County Plowmen's Association. Russell Comfort, 10, of Vinesland was the youngest entrant of the day and Wm. E. Vansickle, 68, of Cainsville was the oldest. Following the day the entrants ad-

POPPY FUND IS MORE THAN A CHARITY FUND

We All Should "Honour The Dead By Serving The Living"—Fund Assists Veterans And Their Dependents.

At this season we should have drawn to our attention a few facts in connection with the sale of poppies which is being carried out in West Lincoln next Saturday. In the minds of the average person the poppy sale is put in the same category as the average charity, but there is a difference.

Let us go back to the South African War, or to all the years between 1914-18 when Canada was engaged in its first world war. There are names I would like to bring to your memory out of that conflict. Do you remember Yves, Paschendale, Vimy Ridge, Saint Julien, the Somme? In world war II, we have Ortona, Falaise, Di-appe; any significance? Do you remember the thousands of young Canadians who manned the aircraft which helped turn defeat into victory, or the youngsters on Canada's ships of war who fought the battle of the Atlantic?

If this means anything to you then the Poppy Fund will be to you much more than just another (Continued on Page 5)

HALLOWE'EN PARADE BIGGEST EVER HELD

Over 400 Children And Adults Were In Costume—Over 70 Prizes Distributed With Apples And Candy.

The traditional Halloween Parade, this year sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce was held on Monday night, and altogether some four hundred kids and adults, dressed in everything from skunks to potato sacks paraded down Main Street to the arena, where a group of judges stood their ground for two hours attempting to pick over seventy winners.

Although the weather was plenty brisk the temperature failed to faze the high spirits of the celebrants, and it is understood that this was perhaps the biggest Halloween Parade ever held in Grimsby.

With but a few exceptions the merchants, business men and local industries contributed many prizes and cash donations toward the event, which is credited with helping keep the usual Halloween pranks down to a minimum.

Space will not permit the printing of the complete list of prize winners, but the following were some of those winning prizes for original and distinctive costumes.

Four-month-old Neil Long, of Main St. W., was by far the youngest boy in costume in the parade, while Barbara Becker, 11, was year won this event in the girls class. Jackie Lawson exhibited the best decorated doll carriage. Gwen Hurd and Judy Stuart placed 2nd and third. Grace, Donna and Barbara Thompson placed first in the decorated coaster wagon competition. Delores Lentz won first prize for the best decorated tri-cycle, while Wilfred Ramsay took top honors for the decorated bicycle.

Will Be Off The Press In Time To Make An Ideal Christmas Gift—Book Made Up From Over A Million Broadcast Words.

By Gregory Clark

The late Andy Clarke's "Neighbourly News" broadcasts over a period of eight years on the CBC network piled up over a million written words of sheer delight to a very wide audience. These million words have been ranked and sifted down to 60,000 words for a book—"Andy Clarke and His Neighbourly News"—which has been published by Ryerson Press in time to be a Christmas gift to someone in all the thousands of homes that were joyously invaded by Andy's voice every Sunday morning for so many years.

When Andy Clarke died, his widow, Vi Dickens-Clarke, herself a newspaper woman all her life, determined that Andy's work in recounting the humor and goodwill of Canadian rural life, should be preserved in a book. With the help of her friend, Mrs. May Holmsted Cox, an experienced author, Mrs. Clarke spent a whole year extracting from those million words of Andy's filed manuscripts the very cream of the stories her husband had culled from the weekly newspapers of Ontario and Quebec. Last winter, she enlisted from (Continued on page 11)

TIME CHANGE

Grimsby will revert to Standard Time at midnight on Saturday night. Mayor Clarence W. Lewis, after a conference with his council issued a proclamation to that effect on Tuesday morning.

At the present time the two coach lines serving Grimsby and the C.N.R. are operating on Standard Time and as a result the general public have been in a confused state of mind.

If you do not want to be late for church on Sunday morning be sure and set the clock back one hour before retiring on Saturday night.

LIONS CLUB MAKES ANOTHER DONATION

Contribute $1,560 To Hospital Bringing Their Total Subscription To $5,000—District Governor Pays Visit.

With the paying of a further grant of $1,560.00, the Grimsby Lions Club completed payment of $5,000 toward the West Lincoln Memorial Hospital, and more precisely the setting up of fourteen cubicles in glass enclosed "rooms" for the care of new born babies in the hospital recently dedicated. The Lions' magnificent effort cannot be expressed fully, their assistance toward the opening of the hospital and the establishing of an ultra-modern nursery stands as a record of achievement for a service club that would be extremely difficult to beat.

This point was further stressed by District Governor Jack Farlow, who made his first visit to the Grimsby Club on Tuesday night, and at which Farlow stated that he was indeed happy to visit such a famous club as the Lions of Grimsby.

Governor Farlow congratulated the officers and members for an outstanding record of achievement in their community, and said that "your record stands throughout the whole Province."

Governor Farlow was given an exceptionally warm introduction by International Councillor P. V. Smith, who said in his introductory remarks, that the District Governor was one of the few men you find today in public office who is absolutely dependable.

District Governor Farlow did not hold the floor for a great length of time, but contained in his message to the Grimsby Lions was a great deal of material from which Lions could gain immeasurable value.

He based his message on the spirit of friendship that exists in Lions Clubs all over the world and went on to point out that a good service club is always looking into the future; searching and striving for the betterment of the community.

OVER MILLION MARK

Assessor Stanley Gibson told Beamsville Council Monday night that this village's assessment had now climbed to an all-time high of $1,092,000.

This figure represents the total assessment and includes exempt properties such as churches. Taxable assessment stands at $85,555, up $26,000 over 1948.

HALLOWEEN PRANKSTERS SHOT BY SMITHVILLE PENSIONER

FAMOUS OLD DOOR NOW SAFELY IN STORAGE

May Some Day Be Utilized In A Civic Building—Johnson's Hardware Now Has 2,000 Square Feet Of Space.

Recent alterations to Johnson's Hardware have increased the floor space slightly over two thousand square feet, which gives the busy location the distinction of being one of the largest if not the largest stores in town as far as actual floor space is concerned at least.

Sitting back as it does from the sidewalk frontage, the large display windows are particularly advantageous to window-shoppers, and Mr. Johnson says that he has no intention of changing this ideal setup.

The recent alterations have hinged around the moving of the now famous door of the old Marriott Tavern, and in its place is a large window, behind which is a very fine department set aside for the exclusive display of electrical appliances.

The highly publicized door has been sold to a local man, and is at present in storage, and may be utilized by the owner if he should see fit to do so. However, the transaction has been so worded, that if the new owner has no cause to put the door back in service, Mr. Johnson may make a refund and possibly donate the door to an organization planning a building to be erected for civic interests.

Ivan Carruthers Received Five Shotgun Pellets In Head And Neck From 12 Gauge Gun In The Hands Of George McCann, 83-Year-Old Retired Farmer.

"I guess they won't bother me again," said 83-year-old Edward McCann of Smithville, after a blast of buckshot sent two Smithville youths to Hamilton General Hospital with head wounds Monday night.

Ivan Carruthers, 17, of Smithville, was the most seriously wounded with nine pellets in his head, neck and face. All but one were removed. The remaining pellet just missed or possibly nicked the jugular vein and is the cause for some concern of the doctors. Roy Atkinson, 16, of Grimsby, had three pellets removed from his head and was permitted to go home.

Police Chief Gordon Thede said Tuesday a charge is pending against the shotgun wielding old-age pensioner.

McCann, who lives with his 84-year-old wife in a small frame house just off No. 30 Highway in Smithville, said the shooting was the result of 12 years' waiting to catch Halloween pranksters as they attempted to overturn his outdoor toilet.

"I've lived here for 12 years," he said, "and they have bothered me every year. I've sat out in my car in the backyard every Halloween since I came here. Last year a friend came in to visit me and kept me inside and they pulled over my toilet. And four years ago they pulled down the front fence while (Continued on Page 8)

True independence is never afraid of appearing dependent, and true dependence leads always to the most perfect independence.

"WEAR A POPPY FOR REMEMBRANCE"

Once again this year The Canadian Legion is asking the people of West Lincoln to wear a poppy for remembrance. This is an excellent appeal, and one that should not be overlooked. During the years since Col. John McCrae wrote the challenging poem "In Flanders Fields" the poppy has taken on a peculiar significance. It has come to typify in many countries of the world the debt which we who live owe to those who died in battle.

One day in the year the people of Canada are asked to wear a poppy to show that they remember. One day in the year they are asked to pause briefly to honour the dead. That is little enough. While remembrance of the dead of the two wars is the spiritual aspect of the poppy, there is the other practical purpose of assisting the living, for the money raised through the fund is used for emergency assistance to veterans and to families of veterans.

While it is true that veterans under certain circumstances have the advantage of specific legislation, such as war veterans' allowance, it should be remembered that when an emergency crops up in any family, speed is the essential requirement in providing assistance.

There are many cases on record with the Poppy Fund where the necessary assistance has been forthcoming in a matter of hours. It should be remembered also that there are many worthy veterans who hesitate to apply to any of the organized charities. Many of them have twice gone into uniform, and have given ten years from their productive life to the service of their country. Through the comradeship of the Canadian Legion their needs are learned, and the assistance is forthcoming. It should be remembered too, that while the Poppy Fund is a national appeal the money raised locally is used locally to assist veterans and their families.

The Legion slogan "Wear a Poppy for Remembrance" is a good slogan. It is one that deserves the support of every citizen.

WAS GRANDMOTHER EVER SPANKED?

In convention assembled, some four hundred grandmothers, representative of the United States, swapped ideas on how to bring up children. And out of the discussions, which were held in Atlanta, it is reported the conclusion reached was: "Don't spank."

That may all be very good. But we wonder if it had been grandfathers who were present, the decision would have been the same. The grandmothers may have been thinking back to their own childhood, when they reached their conclusions. How many girls were ever taken to the woodshed for the application of that bit of physical refreshment that through the years has been held to be almost essential to the well-being of the average man-child? Little girls were immune from those parentally imposed visits, and so it seems probable the grandmothers may have been discussing something of which they had little first-hand knowledge.

In the light of this, possibly it would be unfortunate if the decision of the Atlanta meeting was to have the result of eliminating from the land a form of correction which through the years has proved a satisfactory means of giving rest to hard-pressed parents, and which in after years has resulted in a more appreciative and responsive child. In any event, we would prefer to hear from the grandfathers before deciding to eliminate all spanking. Experience counts in this, as in most other things.

BRASS POLES OBSOLETE

In the good old days at a certain hour every evening, the gong rang, the horses galloped out of their stalls, the harness came down and was snapped while men came sliding down the shiny brass poles. This was all practice for alertness; the horses even became restless as the alarm minute approached. The small boy, and the grown-up too, got a kick out of this exhibition within the fire hall. The brass pole was a temptation to the boy as well. Now there are motor trucks, the engine is motorized, all the glamor is gone and, believe it or not, in some places they are doing away with the brass poles.

As The New York Herald-Tribune comments:

"And to relate, in three new firehouses to be built in Columbus, Ohio, the brass poles will be missing. The new structures will all be on one floor so the firemen—the stokers—can just jump out of bed and climb on the pumpers and the ladder trucks. Fire Chief Walter G. Strickfaden has decreed that brass poles are dangerous. Too many of his men have been hurt sliding down the poles, he says. It is comforting to learn that the New York authorities have no intention of doing away with brass poles. A new firehouse, opened a few days ago on Welfare Island, has the poles and they are provided for in several houses yet to be built. One highly placed official said that accidents from pole-sliding in this city were few and far between. We earnestly hope, here and elsewhere, the brass pole may persist to delight the public and speed the fire fighter for many a long day to come."

ON THE WAY OUT

A housewife in Europe is said to have complained to her butcher that she found a piece of rubber in the sausage he had sold her. The butcher was sorry, but explained, jokingly, that such things happened now and again in an age when the horse was being so largely displaced by the motor vehicle.

There is more truth than levity in the butcher's observation, so far as the dwindling number of horses is concerned. Confirmation of it has come from an industrialist in Ontario who has reduced the work week in his plant from 44 to 27 hours. He has been compelled to do this, he advised his seventy employees, because of the sharp falling off in the demand for harness and harness hardware.

The industrialist went on to explain that the horse is disappearing from the workaday scene in Canada and elsewhere; some bakeries and dairies still use horses in the cities, but they are about all that do so. Even on the farms the tractor is steadily supplanting Old Dobbin.

Further evidence of the decline of the horse's usefulness as a dependable beast of burden is found in Wyoming, once one of the most active areas of horse raising. Old-timers out there can well remember when that horse commanded such general respect that the man rash enough to steal one ran the grave risk of being shot on sight or strung up by rough frontier justice.

In recent years, however, the ranches of Wyoming have substantially reduced the number of horses being raised. The ranchers point out that, with to-day's average price of $35 a head, a horse is scarcely worth the hay required to feed it. A cow, which can live on less range than a horse, is worth approximately $141 on the current market. In 1934 a census showed there were 158,000 horses in Wyoming. Last year there were only 94,000; there are fewer this year, and their numbers will continue to dwindle, it is believed.

The New World, say historians, possessed no horses when Columbus discovered it. On his second voyage in 1493 he brought with him 24 stallions, 10 mares and three mules. Not all of these survived, but more of the animals came from Spain with every fleet that arrived. Espanola, or Santo Domingo, was the first home of the horse in America. Breeding centres were next established in Puerto Rico, Jamaica and Cuba. Cortes obtained from Cuba the horses he needed for his invasion and conquest of Mexico in 1519. De Soto brought horses to Florida in 1539 and used them on his long march to the Mississippi. After he died, his followers took the animals into what is now Texas.

Those horses were the progenitors of the wild horses that eventually overran the western wilderness and are now known as mustangs. After 300 years there were millions of them. It was from the best of these that the Indians of the Great Plains bred the type known as the Indian Pony. The domesticated horse became established along the Atlantic seaboard between 1600 and 1630. The early colonists of Virginia brought horses with them, but were reduced to the "extremity of eating the first lot when starvation threatened Jamestown."

The horse has therefore been around for quite a long time in the New World and much longer in the Old. A noble, patient creature, and a link in a close human bond, it may not be facing extinction, but both its utility and its numbers are declining. And that is not a happy prospect. For, after all, gas-driven engine doesn't have much of a personality; it is not concerned with brown frowns, with post roads, a clanging smithy or spreading chestnut tree.

Life would be arid without the horse, even though one could view it only as grazed in some quiet lush pasture.

SELLING FINE EXAMPLE

Saltfleet Township has the right idea! Driving along No. 8 Highway a few days ago we noted neat, legible signs at the crossroads, reading Fruitland Road, Glover Road, Millen Road, Pottruff Road, and so on.

Good for you, Saltfleet! Now let North and South Grimsby, Caistor, Clinton and the rest follow this good example. It's high time those remote and nameless "back-on-the-mountain" wastes were brought into intelligible circulation.

John Hewitt in his natty white coat and apron looks pretty smart behind the counter of his newly accumulated grocery at the corner of Depot and John streets. Of course, Mrs. John, she always did look natty and smart. The ex-Reeve will make a real store out of his new purchase and it will be a credit to Grimsby.

I have been wondering for a long time as to just how many store awnings on Main Street are raised up to the legal limit allowed by the town by-law. I do not think that there are very many on the street that are the legal limit of six feet from the side walk. I know that there are a lot of them that break my hat off and I am not six feet. Just how does Chief James duck under them for he is a whole lot higher in the stratosphere than I am. I think it would be a good idea if the chief took a yardstick and did a little measuring, then give a little chalk talk to the offenders.

Just from a point of observation. Now that the Jaycees, free gratis, have given Mayor and Mrs. Lewis a baby, I would suggest that His Worship prepare and lay a plan before his august councillors that would provide for several ramps for baby buggies at various spots on the south side of Main Street and at intersections on the north side. There is no doubt that Grimsby is growing, and taking a census of baby buggies, it sure is growing, so therefore, let us provide better accommodation for this type of transportation. Now that our new hospital is open there is not much doubt but what there will, in the months to come, a big increase in baby buggies, so therefore let us be prepared to take care of this increased traffic.

Last week the following question was asked in this column—"Who was the old Head Public School Teacher—they were not known in those days as 'Principals'—that always wore a grey suit and a Christmas hat. This is not out of my mind. I went to school to him. I never was trapped by him. I was too small. Here's a lead. 'Heppie' was the one that always strapped me. I needed it. To the first person that notices The Independent who this school teacher was they will receive a one year's subscription to Lincoln's Leading Weekly for Free." — All told I only received seven correct answers. I did not expect any more for the person in question has been dead for well over 50 years, so anyone answering the question right would have to be an old time resident or a person who went to school to him. The gentleman in question was the late David Sykes. The winner of one year's subscription to this Great Family Journal was Mrs. Ethel Wright, Ontario St.

Often when a catastrophe or some other tragedy occurs little incidents happen that in the days after mystify some people as to just how they did happen. Here is one of those cases. Last week while in conversation with Miss Douglas MacRobbie we touched upon the subject of the disastrous fire that swept the old West Lincoln hospital and she said "one thing that mystified me after the fire and ever since was how that newspaper airplane was over the hospital so quick and how all those Hamilton, St. Catharines and Toronto newspapermen and photographers were on the scene so quickly."

The explanation was easy. When that fire alarm came in on that tragic January day and Fire Chief LePage and his men, with both fire trucks went roaring down number eight highway, Gordon McGregor our crack reporter of The Independent was high-tailing right behind them. Arriving at the scene "Mac" sensed the fact that if the hospital was not doomed it certainly would be badly damaged.

He grabbed the telephone and while the flames roared over head he put through a call to the Globe and Mail and within 30 minutes time the Globe and Mail plane was hovering over the doomed structure taking pictures. The newspaper underground soon brought other news hounds and reporters to the scene. That call was the last call that ever went over the old hospital telephone. So folks, that is just how things happen that cause people to wonder.

As I have often written in this column, this is a funny, funny world and it is full of funny, funny people. I had a very fine gentleman stop me on the old Main Street the other day and ask, "why do you boom and boost the telephone operators, or 'your Little Blue Bells' like you do." I very quickly replied, "Because I get service and I'm willing to pay for it." Takes last Saturday night for example, just an ordinary newspaper-telephone night with me. I had 21 calls "out" in a space of 35 minutes and then in the next 30 minutes four calls "in" including one long distance call from Ottawa. From high society to the police calls; from a minister of the gospel to a hockey coach and a lot of other people in between. I had no trouble getting connected with central or disconnected. And the same thing applies to The Independent business and editorial offices. I and the staff of this newspaper use the telephone as a business medium, not as a means of gossip communication. And it is those "gossip communication" that are doing the most kicking about the contemplated raise in rates now applied for by the Bell Telephone Co. and who have the most to say about the supposed to be "poor service." It always has been and I presume it always will be, the world without end, the three most harassed people in the universe, and the poorest paid, so far as the great unwashed publishing operators. All that the members of those staid public services have to do is give in anything service, regardless of the elements or wait until I take all the abuse in the world and Range" tomorrow for your pay. I'm still "Hiding The new" the Little Blue Bells and the Doctors. selves, who boys will have to scurry for them—they have always had to do.

What one relishes, nourishes.

BARNUM THE GREAT PROMOTER

The tour of Jenny Lind in this country under his management is perhaps the best example of Barnum's skill as a producer. Never having heard the Nightingale, Barnum negotiated with her and signed a contract for the then stupendous figure of one thousand dollars a concert for one hundred and fifty appearances. . . .

For weeks before her arrival, Barnum flooded the press with accounts of her movements abroad. When her ship finally crept through the harbor to its wharf, dense thousands of hysterical New Yorkers packed the streets. Every day there appeared a column concerning the Nightingale, with the result that when she sang for the first time all the newspapers set off rhetorical roman candles in her honor.

The New York Tribune for September 12, 1850, printed this account of her appearance in Castle Garden, at the Battery:

"Jenny Lind's first concert is over, and all doubts are at an end. She is the greatest singer we have ever heard, and her success is all that was anticipated from her genius and her fame. As this is something of an era in our history of Art, we give a detailed account of all that took place on that occasion. . . .

"The hall was brilliantly lighted, though from its vast extent the stage looked somewhat dim. The wooden partition which was built up in place of the drop curtain, is covered with a painting representing the combined standards of America and Sweden, below which are arabesque ornaments in white and gold. Considering the short time allowed for these improvements, the change was remarkable. The only instance of bad taste which we noticed was a large motto, worked in flowers, suspended over the pillars of the balcony directly in front of the stage. Welcome, Sweet Warbler (so ran the words) was not only tame and commonplace, but decidedly out of place.

"Now came a moment of breathless expectation. A moment more and Jenny Lind clad in a white dress which well became the frank sincerity of her face, came forward through the orchestra. It is impossible to describe the spontaneous burst of welcome which greeted her. The vast assembly rose as one man and for some minutes nothing could be seen but the waving of hands and handkerchiefs, nothing heard but a storm of tumultuous cheers. The enthusiasm of the moment, for a time beyond all bounds, was at last subdued. . . . and the divine songstress, with that perfect bearing, that air of all dignity and sweetness, blending a childlike simplicity and half-trembling womanly modesty with the beautiful confidence of Genius and serene wisdom of Art, addressed herself to song, as the orchestra prepared the way for the voice in Casta Diva. . . .

"If it were possible we would describe the quality of that voice, so pure, so sweet, so fine, so whole and all-pervading, in its lowest breathings and minutest inflections as well as in its strongest volume. We never heard tones which in their sweetness went so far. . . .

But not all Americans were swept along to such a state as the Tribune man by the Barnum tidal wave. Among the doubters was the author of Letters from Paumotu, one Walt Whitman, who wrote to the New York Evening Post on August 14, 1851:

"The Swedish Swan, with all her blandishments, never touched my heart in the least. I wondered at so much vocal dexterity; and indeed they were all very pretty, those leaps and double somersets. But even in the grandest religious airs, genuine masterpieces as they are, of the German composers, executed by this strangely overpraised woman in perfect scientific style, let the critics say what they like, it was a failure; for there was a vacuum in the head of the performance." — From "America Goes to Press," by Laurence Greene.

KNITTERS

"The strange a woman would admit that men have skill enough to knit: That some of them have mastered that Duff art of purling while they chat And shaping woolen diamonds blue As well as lady fingers do; That males who need new socks are known To sit down and knit their own. Among the knitting males are found The names of gentlemen renowned. The list includes a former king, Dramatic stars and men who sing. 'Tis told these most amazing chaps, With balls of wool upon their laps, As does my Janet, while she rocks, Can make the loveliest Argyle socks. Though fond of Argyle socks am I, To knit my own I'd never try. I like 'tis more from love than thrift. To get them as a birthday gift. 'Tis so with sweaters and with mitts; They should be things devotion knits. From totem rib through heel and toe, That I am loved, my socks must show."

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY A COMMUNITY RESPONSIBILITY

This is one of a series of articles submitted by the Children's Aid Society of the City of St. Catharines and the County of Lincoln. Our purpose is to further community understanding and interest in all programs dedicated to raising the standards of child and family life in our midst.

IT SEEMS LIKE A HORRIBLE DREAM NOW THAT IT'S ALL OVER

With these words Mary began to talk freely to the social worker about the circumstances surrounding the birth of her child as an unmarried mother.

The baby, normal and healthy in every way, was now in an approved adoption home and making splendid progress, while Mary was once again endeavouring to find her rightful place in her home community.

This was perhaps the third or fourth visit to the Children's Aid office since coming out of hospital for Mary, and they were of such an informal, friendly nature, that even the social worker found difficulty in keeping track of the precise number of interviews.

Mary wanted to talk, for as she put it, "If I can make it easier for you to see how I felt when I first knew I was pregnant with all the fears that went through my mind, then you will be in a better position to help other girls."

First of all, I didn't know that the Children's Aid Society could help a girl who was not married and was expecting a baby. In addition to this, I didn't know how you could help or what it would cost, or whether you would look down on me as others in the community have."

Unfortunately in a sense, Mary had waited until she was some six months pregnant before thinking in terms of confinement, at least insofar as making definite plans were concerned. Coupled with this fact, she had come to this community as a total stranger to live with a friend of her mother's, so that no one in her home town would know about her condition. This trying to adjust to a new community, as well as to a completely new situation in terms of her pregnancy, had only caused her to become more nervous, irritable, anti-social and self-pitying.

It was finally at the suggestion of her friend that Mary came to the Children's Aid office. Her initial fear of the unknown was soon conquered, and a thorough medical examination by a reputable physician of her own choice was followed by the making of plans for confinement; for the baby after birth; for contacting the father of the child through the Children's Aid Society, and finally, tentative plans were discussed for her own immediate future.

At first, Mary was hesitant about signing a Declaration of Paternity, to establish under oath the name of the man she knew to be the father of her child. This was due to an emotional mixture of love, distrust, hate and frustration. However, when the social worker was able to chat with Mary about the dual responsibility of both parents in bringing a child into the world, she was fit to proceed.

In due course, the putative father was approached through the Provincial Office of the Children's Aid Society and signed an agreement with the Provincial Office to meet Mary's reasonable expenses for prenatal, confinement, and post natal care, as well as making it possible for the child to have a good start in life.

In the beginning Mary wanted to keep her baby, thus revealing the deep-rooted mother instinct. At 18 years of age she adopted the attitude of "I'll show the world whether I can look after a baby or not, and I don't care what people say, the baby's mine, and I'm going to keep it."

It was not easy for the social worker to help Mary see the other side of the picture, thinking primarily in terms of the baby's and her own future well-being. The problem of supporting the child through her own efforts; of placing it in a boarding home; having it grow up without a father and bearing the name of its mother had not entered Mary's mind. In addition, as a young and attractive girl, she would no doubt be thinking of marriage in a few years, and with a baby of her own prior to marriage, how was she to adjust to this problem? Also, what of her child's thoughts, particularly in its early and late teens, when questions of sex and marriage play such a prominent part in a young person's thinking.

Arising out of several interviews and much objective and level-headed thinking, Mary decided that her child's best chance in life lay in being placed on adoption as soon as possible after birth.

Her own background of health and education was excellent as was that of the putative father, and with a normal and healthy child, adoption was not difficult to consider.

As an safeguard, Mary saw fit to have her child first committed permanently to the care of the Children's Aid Society, thus relieving her of her legal responsibility for the child.

From this experience, Mary had learned a great deal and profited by it. The vindictive sting of community reaction was removed to a considerable degree by her association with the Children's Aid Society. In addition, the social worker was able to bridge the gap between them and to have a greater appreciation and understanding of each other, much to the benefit of both the girl and her parents in facing the future.

The 11th year is the safest in the life of male and female Americans because at that age they have survived most of the dangers and diseases of childhood and are not yet susceptible to any appreciable extent, to the chronic ailments of adulthood.

charity drive. Let us remember that primarily the wearing of a poppy is a sign that you remember the nearly 200,000 Canadians who lost their lives in the two great wars.

However, we must be practical in this appeal and our slogan for the Poppy Campaign is "Honor the Dead by Serving the Living."

The Poppy Fund enables the Canadian Legion to assist veterans and veterans' dependents in times of emergency. Every penny made in our district is spent here.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES

under consideration, with a parade and memorial church service held on or about Remembrance Day, November 11th.

A feature of the Memorial Services to be held in the theatre will be the presentation to Mayor Clarence W. Lewis, by Mrs. Ernest Buchanan, Regent of Lincoln Loyalist Chapter, I. O. O. F., of two scrolls, one containing the names of all the men and women of Grimsby and North Grimsby who served in World War One and a second one containing the names of all the men and women of the two municipalities who served in World War Two. Mayor Lewis in turn will present these scrolls to Mr. Harold B. Mitchell, Chairman of Grimsby Public Library Board, as custodian for the municipality and for depositing in the Public Library where they will always be on view to the general public.

GRIMSBY'S POPULATION

1950 3427
The present mill rate of 54 mills appears plenty high to many ratepayers, but others can recall the days of the 65 mill rate, and also fondly recall, perhaps with pleasant memories, the day of the 25 mill rate. Whether or not these days are gone forever, is the burning sixty-four dollar question... and certainly it would appear that the present 54 mill rate will hardly be improved upon in the near future.

A little comparison of assessment figures as based on the 1950 roll which was completed last month, with but a few deletions, shows that the total assessment for 1950 stands at $1,948,712, as compared to 1949's $1,909,822. Total land assessment for 1950 is also up a bit, $437,453, as compared to a previous $430,563. Building assessments total $1,254,105 at present, compared to $1,223,855 in 1949.

Twelve churches and schools appear on the exemption list, along with such buildings and utilities as the post office, municipal office, fire hall and police office, reservoir, library, waterworks and sewerage disposal plant.

Church properties although exempt are assessed in 1950 for $47,506 as compared to $46,000 in 1949. School assessments stand at $181,845 for 1950 exactly the same as in 1949.

In the Essex Champions' Tractor Plow Special, donated by the Imperial Oil Limited, Sydney Slater was presented with the award by J. W. Horn of Hamilton, representing the company. The award was made for the best plowed land in tractor and classes completed by a resident of Lincoln County.

The Essex Champions' Horse Plow award went to Gordon Packham for the best land in the sod classes (horses only), plowed by a resident of Lincoln County.

The members of the Plowmen's Association expressed their appreciation to the farm machinery companies and Lincoln County dealers for the "wonderful display of farm machinery." Special thanks were tendered to the Halliday Building Materials Supply Co., for the "Halliday's Trailer," which served as general office headquarters for the day. The trailer also provided public address facilities.

FRANKSTERS SHOT

I sat on guard in the back. Last night I was sitting in the back seat of my car. The car is chained to the house, so they can't pull it away. About nine o'clock I saw about 50 of them go down West St., just before night school at the collegiate came out." McCann said. "Then about 10.30, four or five of them came back and sauntered over toward the toilet. When they got up to it, I let fly. I didn't know I had hit anyone, because they all went away under their own steam. I didn't sight on them. I just held the gun in their direction and let her go.

"Then I reloaded and waited for them to come again but they didn't come. The police did," McCann added.

When he saw the police, McCann said, he went out to them unaware that anyone had been hurt. They asked for the gun and he gave it to them.

McCann is a retired Niagara-on-the-Lake farmer. The McCanns have no children.

In the group with Carruthers and Atkinson were Harry and Fred Nickerson and Willy Dickson. "We were just floating around," Roy Atkinson said, "looking for some excitement. The McCann out-house looked tempting, so we drifted over toward it. Then the next thing I knew we heard a shot and I felt a burning in my head.

"I didn't even know this guy McCann. We just were looking for some fun."

A NEW HIGH IN HATS

By ALICE ALDEN

Millinery designers are rising to new heights judging from the very newest hats from the leading houses here and abroad. Jeanne Tete is definitely one designer who believes in the new higher-crowned silhouette as is evidenced by this model. Of sapphire blue velour, the one-piece crown and brim are both softly pleated at the front, the pleating secured by rhinestone circlets.

HOMEMAKER'S CORNER

by Evelyn Budge

Dear Homemakers:

I am going to chat with you this week about ways of using up bits of bread.

With some people, crusts, crumbs, the heel of the loaf all go into the garbage can. Few realize that a crust of bread has the same relative value as the loaf. Bread is more valuable than the equivalent in flour because it is made more di-gestible by baking. We use cracker dust or croutons when bits of leftover bread might be used with considerable economy.

In the hurry of getting off to school the young child may be giving half cooked cereal, when hot milk poured over broken toasted crusts of bread which are adequately cooked would be better and can be prepared in about three minutes.

Because of lack of time, gravy is often lumpy with half cooked flour. When there is no time to make a gravy properly a few thin bread crumbs mixed into the pan into which the meat has been cooked, the water stirred in, and a delicious flavor and excellent gravy texture can be secured in a moment's time.

All odds and ends of bread should be kept separate from the loaf as the cut surface attracts mold.

In thickening gravies use 3 tbsps.
crumbs to one cup liquid, and in thickening soups, use 1 tsp. to 1 cup liquid.

Dry crumbs can be used for coating croquettes, for patties, for crumbing vegetables and fish, for broiling or frying, and for reinforcing nut, meat or fish loaves.
Dry crumbs can be sprinkled on the bottom crust of custard or fruit pies to prevent the liquid from soaking into the undercrust while baking.

They can also be used to extend the eggs in scrambling eggs or in making omelettes.

Crumb Omelette
Combine ¼ cup leftover bread crumbs with ¼ cup warm milk and let stand 3 minutes. Separate 4 eggs. Beat whites stiff and yolks creamy. Add the bread to the yolks with 1 tsp. salt, one-eighth tsp.
pepper and 1 tsp. butter. Fold into the whites. Transfer to a small omelette pan in which vegetable fat or butter has been melted and fry gently, lifting the mixture about the edges. When brown, fold over and serve.

Crumb Muffins
1 cup flour, ¼ tsp. salt, 1 cup fine dry bread crumbs, 4 tbsps.
baking powder, 2 tbsps. sugar.
Measure into a bowl. Add 1 cup milk and 1 egg beaten together.
Lastly add 3 tbsps. melted shortening. Mix well and bake in small muffin tins in an oven at 375 degrees F.

Onion Soup
Peel and chop enough onions to make 3 cups. Add 1½ tsp. salt, 3 cups water. Bring to a boil and boil for 30 minutes. Add 3 cups milk, 1 tsp. butter, and 1 cup crumbled bits of bread. Serve at once.

Peach or Plum Betty
(the speed way)
Stew enough stoned peaches or peeled stoned plums to make 3 cups or use canned fruit if not in season. Chop fruit fine and combine with 2 cups soft bread crumbs.
Add 1½ cups sugar, ¼ tsp. cinnamon, ¼ tsp. cloves, 3 tbsps. melted butter. Stew slowly for 15 minutes.

Date Nut Crumb Cake
Beat 2 eggs in a bowl until light.
Add 1 cup sugar, ½ cup dry bread crumbs, 1 cup chopped nuts, 1 cup stewed and chopped dates, 1 tsp. R.
Fdr. Bake the mixture in a shallow oiled pan about 45 minutes in a slow oven at 325 degrees F. Cut in squares and serve with whipped cream.

Bread and Fruit Charlotte
Butter a medium sized baking dish. Butter and slice some bread.
Put a layer in the dish and cover with shredded canned pineapple, crushed raspberries or peaches, alternate layers of bread and fruit, the last layer buttered. Sprinkle thickly with sugar and bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Serve warm with or without cream.

Cinnamon crumbs for decorating and flavoring desserts are made as follows, melt ¼ cup butter in small frying pan. Stir in 1½ cups coarse white bread crumbs and cook until brown. Sift thickly with powdered sugar and cinnamon, ¼ tsp. cinnamon to ¼ cup sugar. Cinnamon crumbs may be used with any fresh fruit sauce, with boiled rice or with warm baked custards.

To change bread into cake—
Cut slices of day old white bread ¼ of an inch wide by 2 inches long. Spread the strips on all sides with sweetened condensed milk. Roll strips in dry shredded coconut. Brown in the oven.

Pie Crust

Mix 1 cup toasted dry bread will be served. Admission 35 cents.

crumbs with ¼ cup sweetened condensed milk, and a few grains salt.
Butter a pie tin and line with the crumb mixture. It needs only a few minutes baking to set the mixture.

Chocolate Crumb Cookies
1 cup toasted bread crumbs, 1 cup sweetened condensed milk, 3 squares unsweetened chocolate, 1 cup pecans, a few grains salt. Put crisp toasted bread through food chopper. Blend condensed milk with melted chocolate and bread crumbs chopped nuts and salt.
Drop by spoonfuls on buttered baking sheet. Press half a nut into each cookie. Bake 12 minutes or until delicately browned in moderate oven.

Sausage Loaf
2 cups raw potato, 1 small onion,
2 cups dry bread crumbs, 3 cups sausage meat. Put potato and onion through food chopper. Add bread crumbs and sausage. Mix together and pack in loaf pan and bake.

Stuffed Bacon Slices
Make a moist bread dressing.
Spread dressing thickly on slices of bacon. Then roll bacon slices like jelly roll and fasten with a tooth-pick. Bake in moderate oven until brown on all sides.

Well, I must close now or I will be having you all dreaming about bread crumbs.

SOCIAL NEWS

Last Friday night the auditorium was filled for a sweater hop. Ellen York and John Butkovitch got things under way with a Bingo dance. Hot dogs and cakes were sold at ten-thirty. Prizes of hot dogs and suckers were won by Olive Clarke and Jim Lawson and Don Mogg and Mary Morris. Don gave us a short but amusing speech. He told us that he might join us again after Christmas. We'll be glad to see you "Boogie."

ASSEMBLY NEWS

Fifth form presented us with a mirth-provoking play called "The Odyssey of Runyon Jones last Friday morning in assembly. Jack Scott played the part of Runyon Jones, a young boy whose dog, called Pootie, had been fatally hit by a car and had gone to "urgatory." Humorous events followed in which Runyon tried to get into "urgatory" and find his dog. Finally, to the joy of the whole audience and Runyon, Pootie was let out of "urgatory." The only fly in the ointment turned out to be that Runyon was dead, too.

CLUB NEWS

Due to a full sports curriculum there were no meetings of the History, Dramatic, Athletic, or Writers' clubs this week.

MR. PHIL ALLAN

Mr. Phil Allan, a graduate of an Alberta university, gave an interesting talk entitled "Trails of '96" in the auditorium of G.H.S. on Oct. 26, 1949. It was about his trip in Northern Canada and Alaska, all on a dime. Mr. Allan displayed many articles made by the Indians and Eskimos. Pictures taken during his trip were also shown.

STUDENT PERSONALITY

Grade 9A's student of the week is "Bill" (he thinks) Bev Hughes. He has travelled quite extensively and has lived in many parts of Ontario. Bev is very fond of music and plays the trombone. He is quite interested, and we understand very good, in woodwork. Bev doesn't spend all his time at music and woodwork, however, for he also hunts and fishes. Bev likes G.H.S. for two reasons—1. lots of hard work (don't ask us why he likes this) and 2. lots of fun (we agree with him here.) To our usual question of favorite class and food he replied Math. to the first and oysters to the last.

SPORTS

On Tuesday, Oct. 25, Grimsby was defeated by Burlington in a rugby game which marked the end of G.H.S. participation in the inter-school football league. It was Grimsby's fourth defeat of the season.

First quarter: Burlington delivered an offside kickoff. Symons of Grimsby tackled and displaced two Burlington men in the opening play. A 10-yard penalty was issued against Burlington. The opposing team received a fumbled pass from Grimsby but the runner was stopped by Piatrowski. Good tackling throughout the first quarter was shown by Burton Verner. Grimsby fumbled carelessly and too often.

Play was never out of the Grimsby 40-yard zone in first quarter. No score.

Second quarter: Grimsby opened with another fumble play the ball was seized by Burlington but a heavy tackle from Butkovitch prevented the runner gaining yardage. Burlington made a wick which was seized by Walters attempting interception. However, to remedy the situation, Walters seized the ball from the ground and carried it to the 50-yard line. Now the game moved to opponents' zone. Burlington kicked back to side-lines. No score.

Third quarter: Burlington received Grimsby's kick and Grimsby fumbled ball-carrier on the 45-yard line. Game moved near Grimsby goal again, and Walters fumbled. Touchdown for Burlington gained in next play—Dave Laking to Walters. The convert was missed. Ball removed game to 50-yard line. Score 5-0 for Burlington.

Fourth quarter: Kick by Grimsby carried ball to 15-yard line of opposition. Grimsby tried forward passes—all incomplete. Grimsby's fumbling still predominant feature. Verner fumbled a Burlington kick. Game moved to Grimsby 40-yard line. Score 5-0.

The mid-game team won a game from Ridley on the 26th, and played its last game of the year.

1st quarter—Ridley kicked off. Chris Wade stopped a Ridley drive with a strong tackle. Ridley's Woodward gained a touchdown. The convert was completed by Hughes. Schwab played a brilliant game with a superb showing of running, kicking, tackling and passing. Harold Lusy, of Grimsby, gained a touchdown; the convert was won by Schwab. Ridley kicked for a range.

2nd quarter—Schwab kicked for 1 point. Grimsby carried game to Ridley territory but lost ball on 2-yard line. A pass from Schwab to Brotnel scored a touchdown.

3rd quarter—Piatrowski gained yardage for Grimsby team. Another touchdown—Piatrowski, convert Schwab.

4th quarter—Eugene Brotnel broke his collarbone. Ridley given a 10-yard penalty for rough playing. Score 18-7.

On Friday, Oct. 27, an exhibition game between Ridley and G. H. S. was played on the Grimsby field. This game was unique in the fact that any boy who wished to play, regardless whether he was a member of the team or not, could take part in the competition.

1st quarter—Fogacher took kick-off for Grimsby. Ridley kicked; the ball was seized by Kapusty who made a long run but dropped the ball. John Millyard made a powerful drive gaining yardage, but was forced out of bounds. Fogacher attempted a run, but fumbled the ball. Millyard kicked for 1 point. Gilbert Evans, G.H.S.'s latest football find, made a powerful tackle and prevented further Ridley gain. Ridley kicked a Grimsby fumble. Another point was gained in field goal.

2nd quarter—John Millyard passed to Gilbert Evans who made a good run. Ridley obtained ball; kicked; received by Walters who made a run. Ridley again kicked; Millyard intercepted and ran. Ridley seized ball and made a powerful run which was broken with a stronger tackle by Evans. Ridley kicked; Jack Scott received and ran. During quarter Peter Wade was hurt.

3rd quarter—Grimsby kicked off. Millyard passed to Scott. Ridley seized ball but Grimsby gained it again as a powerful run was made by Millyard. When Ridley again obtained ball, Lawrence Piatrowski brought it back to our team in another drive. Ridley kicked from her own goal line. A pass from

THIS WEEK'S JOKE

An elderly and slightly bald gentleman entered a barber-shop, seated himself in the chair and asked for a crew cut.

"I'd like to give you what you ask, sir," replied the barber, "but I'm afraid some of your crew have mutinied."

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Crowley have moved in the new Morton house on Park Road.

Miss A. and P. Hiles and Mr. F. W. Templin left this week for Florida where they will spend the winter.

Mr. A. McKinnon picked out of his own garden a lovely cluster of ripe raspberries on Oct. 31st. We thought it very good for so late in the season.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. T. G. Mould whose mother, Mrs. M. Hawley of London, passed away on Oct. 26th. Mr. Mould attended the funeral in London.

The next meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Morris Udell, Nov. 10th, at 2.30. The Roll Call to be answered by amazing incident of school days.

Word was received on Monday that Mr. Geo. Beattie of Kenora had passed away. Mrs. C. J. Freeman, Grimsby Beach, sister; Mr. Ted Beattie of Toronto, brother; Mrs. Walter Schott, Grimsby Beach, niece.

The Parent and Teachers Association held their first Card Party for the season on Thursday evening, Oct. 27th at the Park School. There were ten tables in play, 7 bridge and 3 euchre. The prize winners were for Bridge, Mrs. B. Orton and for Euchre, Mrs. H. Robinson. The committee with Mrs. D. Udell as convener assisted by Mrs. K. McEwin, Mrs. J. Alkana, and Mrs. W. Stogren served a delicious lunch. All present had an enjoyable evening and will look forward to the next party on Nov. 25th.

BEACH SCHOOL HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Parent, Teachers Association Halloween Party, for the pupils of Grimsby Beach school, was a howling success.

Young and slightly older, were all decked out in their finest array. Fat ones, and thin ones, black, white, and yellow ones. Beautiful girls, and some with the queerest of bulges; The bold, bad pirates, clowns, hoboes, and devils, kept the frilly little girls in stitches with giggles.

The battle royal took place twist knight and old witch. The hag crept up, intent on sticking her pronged fork and poisoned onion into his handsome face. He snapped down his visor, lowered his halberd, and chased the wicked old woman back to her bubbling caldron, and bones!

Games of all kinds were enjoyed to the utmost. Apple relays only come once a year boys!

One hundred and fifty elder mills munched down delicious apples all afternoon. Then came REPTILEMENTS. Individually wrapped sandwiches, chocolate milk, and pop.

The lucky prize winners were: Miss Milne's room, Karen Parker, Carol Bramham, Douglas Calvert, Larry Cloughley. Miss Deasley's room: Gloria Jean Hendershot, Mary Joan Panser, Douglas Durham, Victor Bakker. Miss Martin's room: Shirley Skleryk, Terry Molloy, Bob Overholt. Mr. Morris room: Karen Ellis, Vera Delay, Danny Shuwers, John Gillespie. Everybody wore a big smile, and laughter reigned supreme. A lot of work? Yes! but what a swell party, eh kids? Co-operation counts! This was clearly shown, when the perfect co-operation of Parents, Teachers and Pupils made this Halloween party one to be remembered for a long time by all.

BEACH WOLF CUBS

The Grimsby Beach Wolf Cub added another new Cub to their ranks on Thursday when they met in the pack den.

Byron England was the smiling Cub whose investiture was a highlight of the meeting. Another highlight was the conclusion of the first month's pennant race. All eyes nearly popped out when Don Cosby and the Red Six, winners "by a nose" with 66 points, received prize chocolate bars in addition to the coveted "Good Hunters" pennant. A close second with 61 points was the Yellow Six, while the Blue and the Brown scored 59 and 49 points respectively. Good work, Reds!

After all this excitement the Cubs took advantage of the grand October sunshine to have just one more game of baseball, and teamed up under Bob Overholt and Fred Lee. Ahala "ump-ed" the game which was hard-fought all the way, the edge going to Bob Overholt's team.

Good hunting, Cubs!

McKAY—FOWLER

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at Grimsby was the setting for the wedding on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock of Linda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fowler of Winona to Mr. Russell McKay, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell McKay of Nova Scotia. The Rev. J. P. McLeod officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a simple blue gabardine suit and hat, with navy blue accessories. She carried deep red roses. Her only attendant, Miss Beatrice Arbutnot also wore a pale blue suit, with gray accessories, and carried red roses. Groomsman was Mr. Clifford Smith.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Village Inn for forty guests. The bride's mother receiving dressed in burgundy crepe with navy accessories and wearing a corsage of red roses.

FIFTY CHURCH GROUP HOLD GHOSTLY EVE

Orange and black decorations, jack-o-lanterns, wild-eyed scarecrows, apples on strings, scattered Hallowe'en candy, made a harrowing setting for the Young People's Hallowe'en Party in the Fifty Church Sunday School Room. More than twenty five were there, with the party held as an opening to a season of activity. A ghostly walk through a dark tunnel with a "fright every inch" launched the big evening off to a horrible start. Games followed, and plenty of refreshments arranged by the committee, with apple juice, raisin bread, and cookies finding takers easily. The committee who cared for the cats and the decorations were Misses Muriel Gracey, Georgina McDougall, Norma Cocks and Dorothy Koudys. Male help was supplied by George McDougall and Cameron Cocks.

The group expect to meet regularly from now on, with a meeting scheduled for a week Friday, when they expect to get completely organized.

OPENING MEETING OF HORT. SOCIETY HELD

That the time to plant garden bulbs is "right now, after this last frost" was revealed by John S. Clark, president of the Ontario Horticultural Society, in a lecture on bulbs. Addressing the opening meeting of the Winona Horticultural Society on Tuesday evening, Oct. 25th, at the Legion Hall, Mr. Clark spoke eloquently on the many varieties of bulbs, how to buy them, the right and wrong way to plant, and magnificent blazes of colour that rewards the gardener when his efforts appear in the spring.

He also brought with him part of a collection of woodwork which interested the audience greatly, with exquisitely made earrings, brooches, finely carved jewel cases, and work done with varieties of cones from pines, etc.

There were a large number of visitors present from the Hamilton Horticultural Society, who came by chartered bus, and an enjoyable evening was enjoyed with a musical program being presented by Neil Millar, accompanied by Mrs. Reid Smith. Refreshments were served by Mrs. A. E. Cocks and Mrs. Henry Harris.

WEIRD PARTY HELD IN BEWITCHED HALL

The spirit of Hallowe'en was abroad last Monday in the district! Youngsters ceased being ordinary children that go to school every day, wash behind their ears, brush their teeth, and at the witching hour, suddenly turned into leering goblins, hideous witches. Many turned into animals, some of the fairer sex into beautiful grown ladies in costume, and even the tiny tots were in on the big evening. Some rode their broomsticks, some just flew, but all arrived sooner or later at the Legion Hall where the sixth Annual Boy Scout and Cub Hallowe'en Party was being held on Monday night.

Once there, a glorious time followed, with plenty of games, and as all ghostly creatures are a bit hollow anyway plenty of refreshments found their way inside some very peculiar looking characters. It was solid refreshment too, supplied by the Boy Scout's Mothers Auxiliary, red apples, fat doughnuts and gallons of chocolate milk. The fast diminishing platters testified to the fact that the night saw the biggest and best crowd that has ever smiled through a Hallowe'en night to the Annual Party.

Prizes were awarded with much difficulty by the judges who had no definite standard of beauty to set their rules by, but with much fun, winners were finally found. The prizes for the FUNNIEST COSTUME were awarded to, 1st, Jean Keegan who made a realistic hobo; 2nd, to Norreen Whowell, a terrifying scarecrow; 3rd, to Tommy Walburn and Lennie Gibbons who brought a good laugh with their representation of a "Nigger and his woman".

The most original costume was selected after much deliberation with 1st prize being given to Don Belsley, a very authentic Indian Chief; 2nd to Eloise Wilkes who made a sweet and appealing Bo-Peep; and 3rd prize was captured by Douglas Whowell as a witch, charmingly frightful!

The youngest boy was Ian Hunter and the youngest girl Dale Hallett, with these two toddlers they Red Riding Hood, with Ian one and a half years old, and Dale not over two.

Imitation animal prize went to Karl and Karen Welker for their excellent co-ordination in being the top and bottom of a fine three-oughted white horse.

Twins took a prize for being matching white bunnies as Lois and Donna Carpenter.

The largest family present were presented with a prize, taken by Mrs. Giodziak and her seven children.

All in all, it was a satisfactory party, and it was good that many cars were around to take tired youngsters home instead of having to depend upon their broomsticks again. The judges did a wonderful job, and the orchids, or should it be "punkins," go to Mrs. Harry Walters, Mrs. Ed Walters, and Glen Reids. Mrs. William McKinley was pianist.

J. Cunningham New Pastor At Winona Church

J. S. CUNNINGHAM

Newly appointed Pastor of Winona Gospel Church, James S. Cunningham, formerly of Melrose Gospel Church, Toronto, will begin his duties on Sunday, November 6th.

Receiving an overwhelming vote when a ballot was taken among members at a special meeting, Mr. Cunningham was given the full approval and recommendation of the Committee of Ministry and Education of the Associated Gospel Churches of Canada.

Mr. Cunningham's parents were both from Glasgow, Scotland, his father being a lay-preacher of the Baptist Church. A brother, Rev. John B. Cunningham, is pastor of Westbourne Baptist Church, Calgary, Alta.

James S. Cunningham's theological training was obtained at the Baptist Seminary at Toronto, where he has gained much practical experience in leadership throughout Toronto. A veteran of World War II, he is a member of the Toronto camp of Gideons.

Married, his wife is from Toronto, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wellington were most active in Baptist work. Mrs. Cunningham's sister is the wife of Rev. E. C. Smith of Smith's Falls, while her brothers are also in the ministry, one a pastor in New Brunswick, another a missionary in Haiti, while another is a children's evangelist.

NO TROUBLE REPORTED ON HALLOWE'EN

Chief Constable Len Dixon reported that he and Constable Tom Gulliver were out on the watch for trouble all Hallowe'en night and never saw such a quiet evening. Mr. Dixon stated that he could not remember when a Hallowe'en had been so orderly, and that until spoken to he had received no complaints at all. Which is somewhat of a tribute to those who organize Hallowe'en parties for the youngsters, also points out that the youngsters themselves don't wish to damage property, but just have fun, and would apparently rather have fun at a party than anywhere else!

In attendance also will be the Winona Branch of the Canadian Legion, and the Winona Boy Scouts. The lovely old church has undergone much change, and in addition to the Memorials, a fine new choir loft has been installed, and the aisles carpeted. RUTHERFORD SMITH ADDRESSES W.I.

An address by Rutherford Smith of Mount Hope, on "Indian Relics" was enjoyed by the Winona Women's Institute, at their opening meeting, Thursday, Oct. 27th, at the home of Mrs. Howard Smith. Mr. Smith is an authority on his subject having spent many years tracing much information about the early Indians of Westworth County, and coming up with many surprising bits of information as well as an extensive collection that is both rare and valuable. He outlined to the group the various periods of Indian history, pre-European, transition, and post-European, pointing out the necessity of designating the historical period of artifacts, and the people to whom they belong. His collection, recovered from the canyons and campsites in this county, were of the unusual type of relic discovered through excavation rather than chance discovery. Among his cherished treasures were little pipes, kettles, pottery, etc. He revealed that much of his collection was too extensive and delicate for moving around, and extended an invitation to any interested person to visit him at Mount Hope.

It was announced at the meeting that the Women's Institute Scholarship for Entrance pupil with highest standing in 1949 would be awarded on November 14th, at Winona School.

A piano duet was enjoyed by all, given by Mrs. Cecil Pettit and Mrs. Reid Smith, after which a delightful tea was served by the hostess. She was assisted by Mrs. Reid Smith, Mrs. Miles Nelson, and Miss Winnifred Millar.

Congratulations to Artie Clark, one of the famous Peach Kings, and former professional hockey star who last year was appointed coach of the Peach King Hockey Club for the 1948-49 season. His acceptance of the post was verified on Sunday morning when he turned out at the first practice of the Kings, held in the Bilton Street Arena.

There is little doubt that Artie Clark's appointment will be a popular one around this district where he is well known and liked. The executive of the club acted wisely in selecting a local man to succeed Pop McVicar, and if Johnny Miller who has been McVicar's right-hand man for the past couple of years will again act in the very necessary capacity of assistant coach, then the Kings should be well looked after in that department.

The executive meeting called by President Harold Harris, was attended with a couple of other items, namely the appointment of George Marr as Treasurer, while two directors were dropped from the executive. As it stands now the men behind the gas include Harold Harris as President, Frank McPhail, Secretary, George Marr, Treasurer, Herb Jarvis, Manager, Dyke Lawson, Harry Davis, and Gord McGregor, directors.

The executive announced plans for a high booster night, which will be the night of the first league game here. Tickets have been printed and are available from all members of the executive, and will also be sold by a local organization to be announced next week. Tickets are a dollar each, and not only serve as admission to the game, but also two chances on a fifty dollar War Savings Certificate. This booster night is a fine one, and is a means whereby everyone can help give the Peach Kings a send off for the heavy season ahead.

While the president and his associates beat their brains out working out countless details for the successful operation of a Senior "B" team in a town far below the side of any of the other seven centres to be represented in the Big 8 league, McVicar, Clark and Jarvis got down to the business of selecting the players to sport the Peach Kings handle this winter.

Over twenty aspirants turned out for the initial practice last weekend, including many familiar faces such as Billy Gluck, Paul Reid, Ted Moyle, Bill Hutchison, and partly Reg Dodds, and also a host of new faces. Both Reg and Joe Recco, formerly of the Niagara Falls crew were on hand, as was Red Warren, former Junior B forward of Stratford, and now a resident of Grimsby, thanks to his affiliation with the local fortress of currency. One of the really bright spots was the appearance of Ben Recco, sensational 21 year old goalie, formerly of the Thorold Junior B Ontario champions. Recco is now a bona fide resident of Grimsby, and along with a couple of other prospects, will try out for the goalie's job held down last season by the people's choice, Denny Lessen.

The team will have to work overtime in order to be in any semblance of condition for the opening gun, which date has not yet been established, pending the actions of Fort Erie who cannot make up their minds whether or not to enter.

Many of the other teams have been working out for some time, Welland, for instance, are supposed to have hit the ice some six weeks ago. You can bet their bottom bunk that Eli Turnowski will have a potent weapon to defend the good old City of Welland and the now defunct Township of Groulx.

While still on the subject of hockey, Ken Warner informed this department that the good old Fruit Belt League has called an organization meeting for this Friday night Nov. 4. It is hoped that reps from each community will be present at Tom Collins' residence in Winona so that the league can get its many differences straightened out and again form a very necessary part of the hockey scene here this winter.

While the footers of last winter, Gentlemen, why not give a lot of consideration to the selection of referees this winter? Your just for what it's worth.

proved, for the most part, to be extremely inefficient. It would be well worth your while, to say nothing of the fans, to import out of town refs to properly conduct a league that is hardly identified by its gentle brand of hockey.

The younger hockey players from throughout the whole of West Lincoln will be interested to know that steps are being taken to provide them with a real honest to goodness league of their own. It is hoped that midget and juvenile teams may both be looked after, with Wednesday night and Saturday afternoon the probable times for this Peach Belt sponsored brain wars. More about that next week.

A MYSTERY OF LIFE

An incredible case of intrigue and murder began in Milwaukee in 1911 when a Fred Osterreich learned that his wife, Dolly, had fallen in love with their mutual friend, Otto. Because Fred swore he would kill them if they ever met again Dolly made a secret home for Otto in a tiny space in her attic which he rarely left thereafter except for a few hours during the day when he helped Dolly with her housework. In 1917 the Osterreichs moved to Los Angeles. Otto followed, and Dolly again secreted him in the attic where he hid until a night in August, 1922, when he met Fred in a hallway and shot him dead. Otto had locked Dolly in a closet before returning to the attic, and she was able to claim convincingly that burglars had killed her husband. So the case remained dormant until March, 1930, when Dolly's lawyer told the entire story. She was acquitted, and Otto was freed under the statute of limitations. The real mystery of the case came out when Otto described how he had spent almost 12 years in five attics. The public long wondered how he had avoided making noises at night, how he had eluded callers and delivery clerks while downstairs during the day, and why he and his hiding place were not discovered by the dozens of detectives who, after the crime, had searched the house from top to bottom.

Caught by boys in a Timmins, Ont., backyard, this four-month-old bear cub didn't have long to live. Later in the same day he became impregnated with captivity and had to be killed. Jerry Hanika, 13, and Paul Cambridge, 14, spotted the cub on their way to school and chased him down the street. They wound up late for studies.

unity which they serve. "It takes all the drive and tenacity required to engineer the laying of a railroad in the remote parts of this great country," said the speaker, himself a former employee of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

He told the Lions that a man who belongs to a service club is a married man as he walks down the main street of his home town. "He is a marked man, because he belongs to a service club, obligated to the betterment of the town he lives and works in," stated the District Governor.

"There are great rewards for the Lions who live according to the great code of ethics of Lionism. You may ask, is it worth it? What do I get? You get plenty if only in friendship, concluded the speaker.

Lion Bob Johnson moved the vote of thanks to the speaker, and presented a barometer on behalf of the Club to the District Governor, whose role is a most important one in the workings of Lionism.

President Earl Marsh told the Lions that he would like to forward to the Winona Men's Club an offer of sponsorship, should they decide to join the ranks of the Lions, which they are considering at the present time.

Roy St. John, who was recently honoured with the presentation of a pin denoting ten years perfect attendance, was honoured again with an honorary membership in the Club.

Mr. Howard Vaughan was the guest soloist, accompanied by Leon Ken Baxter. Mr. Vaughan entertained with several numbers which were received enthusiastically by the Lions.

"NEIGHBORLY NEWS"

among the host of Andy's friends in the newspaper and radio business a committee consisting of Gilles Purcell, general manager of Canadian Press, Dan McArthur of CBC, Frank MacIntyre, of the Dundalk Herald and Greg Clark of the Montreal Standard, and after a meeting with Dr. Lorne Pierce of Ryerson Press, the task of assembling these into book form was begun. Thorvald Macdonald was the artist chosen to illustrate the book with drawings for each chapter head.

The result is a book so essentially Andy Clarke's that you can almost hear the tone of his voice as you read the pages. All the greatest stories Andy told are in the book. The form into which it has been assembled is by no means. Each chapter is a month of the year, from January to December, in which are grouped the choicest items that Andy broadcast in that month during the eight years of his "Neighbourly News" on the air. Greg Clark has written an introduction in the form of a biography, the interesting story of Andy Clarke's happy and friend-making life.

One of the features of the book is the index which enables the old Andy Clarke fan to look up the tale of the piano-playing dog or the bear that lived in the hunter, without a moment's delay. It is a unique book, uniquely constructed, and certain to be an abiding sweet memory to a multitude of people. The Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association, which, with the CBC, was responsible for putting Andy Clarke on the air, is co-operating with CBC and the publishers in publishing "Andy Clarke and his Neighbourly News" and steps are being taken to make it easily available to all who desire copies for Christmas. The price is $2.50.

PLAYERS' GUILD WILL PRESENT FINE COMEDY

With only two weeks left for rehearsals the Grimsby Players' Guild is making real progress on its first production of the new season. "The Late Christopher Bean" is the title, but don't let it fool you. The play is a comedy, and one of the few which were successful on Broadway. In fact it was such a smash hit that even the staff New York Times got enthusiastic, saying it was "a terrifically funny comedy with an hilarious conclusion."

Director Molly Lucas and her cast have been giving the play the full treatment for over a month now. Says Molly, "We've got 'The Late Christopher Bean' nearly mastered now, and in another week we'll have the rough spots smoothed out. Perhaps I shouldn't say so, but this play is shaping up as one of the best yet. We should give one of our finest presentations." When Molly goes that far you can be sure "The Late Christopher Bean" will be worth while seeing.

In the cast are Owen Patterson and Shirley Heathcote in the principal roles. With Maude Collingford, George Winklemore, Joy and Ed Mack, Gill Ryerson and Audrey Brown.

It will be presented, as usual, for two nights in the GHS Auditorium. With the big dates Thursday and Friday, November 17th and 18th. Don't miss the next chapter in this thrilling series!

BIG BANG!

Halloween passed in Grimsby comparatively mildly. It had its moments, but fortunately no really serious misadventures remain to darken the scene. The same can certainly not be said for the usually quiet village of Smithville, where an old and certainly embittered man discharged a shotgun blast into the faces of a group of would-be pranksters. One eighteen year old youth is still in hospital as a result.

Strange as it seems, when we hear of damage being done to private property, usually sympathy goes out to the owner of said property, but let the owner defend his kingdom and oft times the shoe is on the other foot, so to speak.

There is no way of telling just what plans these youths had for the old gent's property, perhaps had it been carried out it would have been considered destructive, on the other hand, it might have been a very average and non-destructive halloween prank.

It would seem that any man who would deliberately wait with a loaded shotgun, hinges on premeditated harm to a person or persons. At eighty three years of age, and under ordinary circumstances, he should have no cause for worry about halloween pranks, unless his attitude in the past has warranted an organized raid by a gang purposely out to wreck and cause willful damage to his property. It will be interesting to see what the Crown will do with this extremely unfortunate incident.

TURN 'EM BACK

A great many people, including yours truly, will be very happy to see all clocks back on standard time. I suppose the point has been proven, those cities and towns that remained on daylight saving time have had the satisfaction of contributing to the saving of hydro power, which as we understand it, was the principle reason for keeping the clocks one hour advanced.

We consider it a fair question now to ask, why the street lights of Grimsby are often burning two or more hours after daylight. This factor we have not seen for ourselves... not being an early riser... but a couple of alert, early-birds have made it quite clear that such is the case.... the lights being on that is. A couple of kilowatts will be saved now at any rate. The spotlight (God rest its merry soul), has been turned out to pasture for the winter.

BIG GAME

The Unpredictables Hunting Club returned from the north land a few days ago. Their net bag was on display... right under their eyes. Boy, oh boy deer hunting can be sooo tiring.

NEW EDITION OF THE TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

The "Book of the Month" for many residents of Grimsby and vicinity is the new issue of the telephone directory. The books were mailed to subscribers last week.

Featuring on its cover the familiar figure of "The Spirit of Communication," the new green-covered edition of the directory replaces the buff-covered book issued last year. It contains 176 pages in its alphabetical section, 10 more than its predecessor.

The first telephone directory in Canada and probably in the British Empire, published in 1878, consisted of a single sheet, 18 by 5 1/2 inches, and contained the names of a mere 66 subscribers.

The old book should be discarded, H. T. Stewart, Bell Telephone manager warned, for almost 23,000 new and changed listings are included in the new edition. It contains listings for Hamilton, Stoney Creek, Dundas, Freeport, Hannon, Waterdown, Winona, Burlington, and other centres.

The manager also cautioned subscribers to give the obsolete directories a thorough "shaking out" before they are discarded as old directories have been found to contain documents folding money and letters. Lists of frequently-called numbers kept on office desk-pads, on cards pinned to the wall by the telephone or in pocket note-books should be checked and changed when the new directory arrives.

ONTARIO FRUIT CROP REPORT FOR OCTOBER

The October fruit report for Ontario as issued by the Ontario Department of Agriculture is as follows:—

The generally unfavourable and extremely dry hot, conditions marking the summer season continued until the last few days in scant rainfall occurred in those districts most seriously affected by summer drought which included all of southwestern Ontario except Essex, Kent, Lambton, Elgin and part of Norfolk Counties, and Northern Ontario. Subsequently much cooler conditions prevailed everywhere and included a few light frosts with showers and rains steadily increasing in frequency, inaugurating a period of typical autumn-like weather and eventually restoring at least the surface soil moisture in all sections. Heaviest precipitation occurred during the last of September and first week in October, culminating in exceptionally high temperatures from October 8th to 11th.

This complete reversal of conditions proved extremely beneficial to all unharvested crops. In tree fruit a heavy crop of apples achieved altogether unexpectedly large size and colour, as did late varieties of peaches and pears. Plums and grapes showed somewhat less outstanding effects, having been too permanently affected by previous dry weather. A direct result of this early drought and heat was the simultaneous harvest and movement of an unusually large number of types and varieties of fruit, especially in peaches and pears and plums, with the latter finally glutting the markets until many were abandoned on the trees in Niagara. At October 10th, harvesting of tree fruits is being rapidly concluded, with only Northern Spy and other late apples, Kieffer and other late pears, and remnants of Concord and a few red grapes remaining to be picked. Insofar as strawberries, cane and bush fruits are concerned, crop prospects for next year have been greatly improved by the belated but extremely welcome change in weather.

Hard wood makes better coals for a campfire than soft.
